through to the fair every day next week. The cars to the fair start each morning at 8 o'clock, and will run until the crowds are home in the afternoon.

Ample Acconfimodation for Visitors—Honorary Vice-Presidents Named.

With only one day intervening before the opening of the second annual State Fair, and that intervening day being Sunday, when the grounds will be kept closed to the public, to-day is the climax of all preparation for the big show.

The Fair Grounds present a busy scene. In every direction workmen and exhibitors are placing exhibits and putting affairs in shape to receive the thousands of visitors who will pour through the gates on Monday.

The city aiready presents a gala appearance, with a large number of business houses decorated, but many other buildings will decorate to-day and Monday, so that on the opening day of the fair all of Broad and Main Streets will present an unbroken line of flags and bunting.

Superintendent of Transportation Buchanan has made all arrangements for carrying the crowds to the fair on the street cars, and the service will be as perfect as it is possible to make it, and with last year as a criterion, that means it will be entirely satisfactory.
